

Innovated glass holding off the edges that are able to initiate a crack

Glass of the Romotop corner fireplace inserts of the Angle series are now held in the way that the holding slats overpress the glass far from its edge, which prevents the glass from cracking from the glass edge. This is the most advanced holding of the glass of the fireplace inserts that reduces the danger of the glass cracking to the absolute minimum.

